SCHOLARSHIPS: Daniel
Batricevic and Maria Dimitrova with British classical double bass player and MFYM patron
Chi-chi Nwanokwu MBE.

Young musicians awarded scholarships

CHILDREN from across London both came through the Barking and Dagenham Community Musicians last Friday.

Gascoigne Primary pupil Daniel Batricevic, who plays the trombone, and flautist Maria Dimitrova, from Ripple Primary, both came through the Barking and Dagenham Community Music Service to achieve the scholarship.

MFYM chief executive, Ginny Greenwood, said: "These talented children, who would have to stop learning without external financial support, will now receive four years of instrumental tuition both at school and at Saturday morning music centre, as well as the opportunity to perform at and attend concerts.

"Our ambition is to raise enough money every year to fund at least 150 four-year scholarships so that by 2016 some 600 children will be benefitting from the scheme."

IMMIGRATION RAIDS SEE NINE ARRESTED

NINE people have been arrested for alleged immigration offences following raids on two businesses in Barking and Ilford.

Three Pakistani nationals – all men aged 56, 24 and 23 – were detained during the Border Agency raid in Ley Street, Ilford, last Wednesday.

Two were alleged to be in the country illegally after overstaying their visas, the other is believed to have entered the country illegally.

Officers from the Border Agency then visited Kamros Cash N Carry, at Fir House, in Creek Road, Barking, the following day where they found six people allegedly working illegally.

Four Pakistani men aged 23, 28, 30 and 56, one

Nigerian woman aged 25, and a 29-year-old Indian man were all found to be in the UK illegally having over-stayed their visas.

All nine people were detained and now face removal from the UK.

Both businesses could be fined up to £10,000 per illegal worker unless they can prove to the UK Border Agency that the correct right-to-work checks were carried out on their employees.

Assistant director Steve Fisher, from the UK Border Agency, said: "These operations were extremely successful and I hope action like this sends out the message that we will not tolerate illegal working."

"Employers who take on illegal workers are both fuelling illegal immigration and damaging the majority of legitimate east London businesses who play by the rules.

"This is why we have the power to hit those who break the law with heavy fines and more operations like this are planned."

Employers unsure of the steps they need to take to avoid employing illegal workers can visit www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk/advice-for-employers or they can call the UK Border Agency's Employers Helpline on 0300 123 4699.

Anyone who suspects that illegal workers are being employed at a business can contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 anonymously or visit www.crimestoppers-uk.org

Competition

WIN! Show tickets to see stars join The Rat Pack at Towngate Theatre

'UP on the Roof' star Kenny Lynch and former 'Eastender', Des Coleman, will join the Rat Pack at The Towngate Theatre during a show to remember and we have 20 pairs of tickets to give away.

On Sunday, October 21, Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and Sammy Davis Jnr will be entertaining audiences at 2pm and 7.30pm during special concerts full of music, laughter and sophisticated style.

David Alacey, the producer of 'The Rat Pack is Back' - Britain's longest running tribute to the original trio - will take to the stage as Frank Sinatra and will be joined by the legendary Kenny Lynch, who will be performing his many hits including 'Up On The Roof', 'Stand By Me' and 'I'll Stay By You'.

The star cast also features Des Coleman who played Lenny in Eastenders for four years and is now a regular reporter for The One Show and This Morning, and Paul Drakely, a finalist in the prestigious 'BBC Musician of The Year' competition, who will take to the stage as Dean Martin.

The band of musical director, Don Hunt, who has served Bruce Forsyth for more than 30 years, and has worked with the likes of Anthony Newley, Bing Crosby and the real Sammy Davis Jnr, will also be there.

There has never been a better time to welcome back classic 'Vegas Style' entertainment to Basildon and this show will appeal to audiences of all ages.

Des said: "The people of Basildon are fantastic and never forget you. When we played the Towngate last year, people came back stage to remind me about the fun nights we had with the Eastenders guys at The Festival Leisure Park.

"The Towngate is one of the great homes of variety entertainment in Essex and it is therefore so appropriate that a tribute to the greatest entertainers in history will be returning this year."

With a fabulous cast, a great band and quality songs, style is certainly back with a bang in 'The Rat Pack Is Back'.

Tickets for the show, which accurately recreates the legendary performances of the pre-eminent entertainers of their time, cost £13 or £18 and are available by calling the Box Office on 01268 465465 or visiting www.towngatetheatre.co.uk

To win one of 20 pairs of tickets to the show, as well as cast CDs, just answer the following question.

Q: In which soap opera did Des Coleman use to appear in?

A: Emmerdale

B: Coronation Street

C: Eastenders

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307

0207 along with your name, address, telephone number and e-mail.

Alternatively text YAPACK (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and e-mail to 63333.

Calls cost 51p from a BT landline. Calls from other networks may vary and from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

College's campaign for Times Red

THE show can go on for Times Red – as long as you get voting.

The band, which includes former Barking & Dagenham College student Luke White, have been given a last chance to get into the live shows stage of the X Factor by winning a public vote.

They are one of just four acts who have been chosen by the show's judges as 'wild cards' for Saturday's show, but only one act of the four will remain afterwards.

Luke, from Collier Row, lives with his band mates Scott Ritchie and Staz Hair. Their band Times Red made it through to the judges' houses, but did not quite make the cut to land a place in the final 12.

However, they were thrown a lifeline by groups mentor Louis Walsh.

Luke said: "We're still positive. It's an amazing opportunity and we are so grateful. To have one more chance is brilliant!"

His former college is now leading the campaign to get Times Red into the finals.

Communications and marketing manager at the college, Anne Vessey, said: "We are so proud of Luke and we really want his band to get to the live shows. So, we're doing a 'Vote Times Red' campaign to our students; we've got messages going out on our Twitter and Facebook pages, as well as our student intranet and plasma screens around the College, telling students to vote for 'our Luke'."

"We really want them to win that wild card vote and our students could make all the difference!"

LAST CHANCE: Luke White, Scott Ritchie and Staz Hair.

Garage fined £4,000 for unsafe equipment

A GARAGE in Barking has been fined after allowing its workers to continue using unsafe electrical equipment for car repairs.

The Health and Safety Executive (HSE) banned M&K Autos Ltd from using a two-post vehicle hoist at premises on the Barking Industrial Estate in January 2011 until repairs were made on exposed live cables and terminals.

However, workers were not instructed to stop using the equipment, which put them at risk of electrocution.

Westminster Magistrates' Court heard last Wednesday that when a HSE inspector revisited the site in April he found the hoist was still in use and that no remedial work had been undertaken.

M&K Autos Ltd, of the Rippleside Commercial Estate, in Ripple Road, Barking, pleaded guilty to breaching the requirements of a prohibition notice served under Section 22 of the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974. The company was fined £4,000 and ordered to pay £2,000 in costs.

After the hearing, HSE Inspector Mohammed Tahir Mortuza said: "Live exposed terminals on the damaged vehicle hoist were just centimetres away from hand operated controls, and it is extremely fortunate that no one was injured or even killed.

"The risks associated with electricity are well known and documented, and when equipment is prohibited for use by HSE it is for a good reason. By failing to comply, M&K Autos put their mechanics at risk of electrocution. HSE will always take action when such breaches occur."

Bishop of Botswana set for vicar role at Barking church

THE BISHOP of Botswana has been tipped to 'light up the church in Barking' from March next year.

Rt Revd Dr Trevor Mwamba has been appointed as Rector of St Margaret's Team Ministry and Barking St Patrick's with Christ Church.

The married father-of-three will also take over as Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of Chelmsford, which covers the London boroughs of Barking and Dagenham, Havering, Newham, Redbridge and Waltham Forest, as well as the county of Essex.

He was welcomed to the role this week by the Bishop of Chelmsford, the Rt Revd Stephen Cottrell, with the pair being old college buddies.

"Bishop Trevor and I were exact contemporaries at theological college in Oxford 31 years ago," Bishop Cottrell said.

"Little did we know we would both become bishops: me in England, Trevor in Botswana. Now we will be working together in Essex and East London. Barking is getting a man of rare wisdom, good humour and experience. He will light up the church in Barking."

Bishop Mwamba was born in Mansa, Zambia, and has worked as mediator within the Province of Central Africa, focusing on conflict resolution.

He received degrees in law from the University of Zambia and theology from the University of Oxford, and also holds an honorary doctorate from Yale University.

He trained for the priesthood at

NEW ROLE: Bishop of Botswana, Rt Revd Dr Trevor Mwamba.

Saint Stephen's House, Oxford, and was ordained in 1984 at Saint Luke's Chelsea in London and served his curacy in the Parish of All Saints, in Notting Hill, before returning to Zambia where he was priested in Ndola in 1985.

After continuing to work in Africa, Bishop Mwamba returned to Oxford in 1996 as assistant chaplain at Keble College and assistant priest at Wolvercote, North Oxford while studying for his research degree.

On his return to Botswana in 1999 he became a non-stipendiary priest and worked for five years as Head of Legal and Compliance, Corporate Affairs and Company Secretary at Standard Chartered Bank Botswana Limited.

He was appointed Vicar General of the Diocese of Botswana in 2002. He was elected Bishop in December 2004, and consecrated and enthroned as Bishop of Botswana in February 2005.

"With immense joy, humility and hope I approach my ministry at St Margaret's, Barking, a parish which clearly reflects this multicultural and multi-ethnic dimension," he said. "I look forward to connecting pastorally with the diversity of people found in Barking and enabling others to engage with the needs of the parish. As well as working with the Team ministry in developing a creative vision to carry forth God's mission in Barking that remains sensitive both to the traditions of the church and to changes in the surrounding community."

The Bishop of Barking, Rt Revd David Hawkins, added: "I am so delighted that Bishop Trevor has been called to serve the church in multicultural Barking at this time."

"It is a great privilege for Barking and the Chelmsford Diocese to have someone from the African Continent of such distinction and international reputation. Bishop Trevor will be an important role model of leadership for many within the church and wider society of the Borough."

Chariot festival

HUNDREDS of people are expected to flock to a major celebration this weekend.

Free food, music dance and drama will be on the cards all day Sunday.

The Hare Krsna Rath Yatra chariot festival starts outside Redbridge Town Hall, in Ilford High Road, at midday.

The procession will make its way to Valentines Park via Cranbrook Road.

Organiser Dharmesh Teji said: "Inside the park, there will be music, drama, dance free vegetarian food and much more."

The festivities will go on until 5pm.

For details call 07595 639788.

New look school to celebrate opening

CHRISTCHURCH Primary School will celebrate its opening as a five-form of entry school on Friday.

The school, in Wellesley Road, Ilford, has undergone major refurbishment work over the past six months to enable it to expand to accommodate an additional 210 pupils.

The expansion works have included the relocation of the Teacher's Centre from Melbourne Road to Churchfields, in South Woodford, the refurbishment of the former Teacher's Centre into classrooms and associated learning spaces as well as work to make Christchurch Children's Centre on the school site more accessible.

SUPPORT: West Ham United helped raise funds for Richard House Hospice.

Football supporters help charity appeal

WEST Ham fans showed their generosity and support for a local children's hospice during their recent Premier League match with Sunderland.

Supporters handed over money to an army of volunteers from Richard House outside Upton Park, while others donated via text at half time after a video appeal, while the players wore the charity's T-shirts during their warm up.

In total, about £2,500 was raised in the annual charity and awareness match, set up by the club.

The Hammers have been closely linked with Richard House for the past seven years and a number of players – including goalscorer on the night Mark Noble – visited the hospice before Christmas to hand out gifts to children and families.

Richard House supports almost 300 families caring for children and young people with life-limiting, life-threatening and complex healthcare conditions from across London.

Viv Talbot, community fundraising manager at Richard

House, was one of those collecting outside the ground.

She said: "We collect at West Ham every year and we are pleased to say we raised £500 more than at our collection at the ground last season.

"Considering how difficult it is at the moment for people to donate money, we are really pleased with how it went and how much we raised.

"Thank you to everyone who dug deep in their pockets."

FUN: Children from Dawlish Primary School enjoy their day out.

Pupils discover countryside life

CHILDREN from schools across the area discovered the wonders of the countryside in Leyton last week.

Youngsters from Waltham Forest, Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge, Lewisham, Haringey, Lambeth, Southwark, Tower Hamlets and more were given an opportunity to learn about aspects of the countryside in an urban setting at the WaterWorks Nature Reserve in the two-day festival. For some children, it was the first time they had ever experienced the countryside.

They got the chance to take part in hands on activities, demonstrations and arena events including willow weaving, corn-dolly making, wood-turning and mini beast hunting, as well as getting close to a range of animals including bats and otters.

Nick Vandenborst, class teacher at Dawlish Primary School, said: "They loved trying venison for the first time and making the link between the meat and the animal it comes from, rather than just seeing a pack of processed meat from the supermarket."

The WaterWorks Nature Reserve is at Lammas Road, off Lea Bridge Road, in Leyton.

Musical pair go through in Open Mic UK audition

TWO Redbridge College musicians have been given the thumbs up by professional judges at auditions for a UK-wide talent competition.

Duo Leona Doughty and Darren Boakye-Adjei impressed judges at the East London audition of Open Mic UK – a national competition searching for the UK's best up and coming singers, rappers and vocalists.

And the talented pair, who both study music qualifications at the college in Little Heath, Barley Lane, are now set to perform at the Regional Finals of the competition this month.

Vocalist Leona, 18, and guitarist Darren, 20, first met at the college before forming their successful musical partnership.

And the duo's acoustic version of the Stevie Wonder classic 'Isn't She Lovely' wowed the panel of four judges on the day.

Leona, who previously attended Marshalls Park School in Romford, said: "I got more and more into the performance as it went on. When we got through it was like an X Factor moment - I really felt as if we had achieved something and that anything was now possible."

"We first met at college and would just sit down and start jamming together. We work well as a partnership because Darren is an honest person and tells me the truth about everything!"

Darren, who previously attended St Paul's Way Trust School in Tower Hamlets, said: "I was so nervous beforehand but we believed that we could work well together and impress the judges."

He added: "My teachers at the college have really inspired me. They are really supportive, always encouraging you to improve and making sure you reach the level where you want to be."

Leona and Darren's Regional Final of Open Mic UK will take place in front of judges and a live audience on Sunday, October 14, at the Towngate Theatre, Basildon.

Young mum jailed for possessing firearms

A YOUNG mother who stored an assortment of firearms and ammunition in her home has been jailed for five years.

Jadeine Mills, 21, of Hall Lane, Chingford, had earlier pleaded guilty at Snaresbrook Crown Court to three counts of possession of a firearm and two counts of possessing ammunition.

Officers executed a search warrant at the flat in May this year and found a rucksack containing an assault rifle with three magazines and two condoms holding ammunition on top of a wardrobe. They also discovered a second rucksack containing a handgun with a loaded magazine, while another smaller bag was found to contain another loaded handgun.

Mills was arrested when she arrived home during the raid with her five-year-old son.

Detective Inspector Chris Jones, from Trident, said: "[The] sentence follows the significant recovery of three automatic firearms.

"Jadeine Mills, acting as weapons custodian for other violent individuals, has shown a complete disregard for the distress and harm caused to victims and families of such crime.

"This case should remind those who willingly look after firearms for others of the significant consequences to be paid and longer term impact to their future.

"Operation Trident is committed to removing such firearms from London's communities."

JAILED: Jadeine Mills.

Cycling scheme to reward shoppers

A SCHEME that rewards shoppers for cycling to the shops has been launched by sustainable transport charity Sustrans in Wanstead High Street.

The Biking Borough Shops scheme, funded by Transport for London, and delivered in partnership with Redbridge Council aims to reduce congestion in Wanstead by encouraging more people to cycle to their local shops and cafes.

More than a dozen of the High Street's independent shops have joined the scheme so far, including a grocer, butchers, drycleaners and delicatessen.

Participants in the scheme must collect 20 points on a loyalty card by making a purchase at a participating retailer.

Sustrans will reward completed loyalty card holders with a new bicycle pannier to help local residents carry their shopping on their bikes.

The scheme is part of the Redbridge Biking Borough project, which provides skills and support to people wanting to make more local journeys by bike.

Emilie Charlesworth, Sustrans Cycling Promotion Officer for Wanstead, who established the scheme said: "Cycling to the shops is quick, easy and cheap, and good for the environment.

"Choosing to do your shopping by bike also supports local businesses and helps to ease traffic congestion on your local roads."

Rachel Root, owner of High Street gift shop The Orange Tree and Chair of the Wanstead Business Partnership, said: "I'm all for preserving the High Street's village feel and promoting local, independent shops.

"This scheme will see more local residents shopping in the area and encourage people to cycle to the High Street from surrounding areas like Aldersbrook and South Woodford instead of driving, saving time usually spent in traffic jams and finding parking.

More information, a list of participating retailers and other resources can be found on the project blog at bikingboroughshops.wordpress.com

Calendar girls find out how cash raised helped hospice

A GROUP of ladies from Redbridge have visited Saint Francis Hospice to see how the money they raised by baring all for a charity calendar has been put to use.

Annette Solomons, Tina Smith, Elaine Mitchell and Pam Foreman were part of a group called Redbridge Breast Friends, whose members have all had breast cancer.

They began meeting to support one another in 2000, but as various projects and events were suggested by members they began to raise significant sums of money for equipment for local hospitals and hospices.

Since 2000 they have raised more than £25,000 with one project alone in 2007/8 raising more than £14,000. This was the Redbridge Breast Friends calendar for 2008 that featured a number of the ladies in lingerie and swimwear to show the world that although they had all gone through traumatic and difficult treatments they could still have fun, look good and come out of the whole experience smiling.

Now in 2012 the group is drawing its activities to a close and one of the last grants they made was to Havering-atte-Bower based Saint Francis Hospice to fund the purchase of an exercise bike for use by patients suffering from various forms of cancer.

Annette said: "We wanted to distribute the remainder of the money we had collected and this seemed such a good use of it."

Charity launches bra amnesty

IF YOUR bra sags in all the wrong places or is more tat than titillating do not dump it, donate it!

That is the message from Saint Francis Hospice shops, which receive more money from the rag trade for old bras than any other item of clothing.

The charity has now launched a 'bra amnesty' and is calling on people to donate old bras - whatever the condition - to any of the 16 Saint Francis Hospice shops in the area. If none of those shops are convenient the hospice now also operates a series of 'Drop Spots' where goods can be donated to help care for local people with life-limiting illness.

The location of all of the shops and Drop Spots can be found at www.sfh.org.uk

A failed haphazard campaign

By Damon Smith

ACCORDING to a quote from presidential candidate Ross Perot at the beginning of The Campaign, "War has rules, mud wrestling has rules... Politics has no rules."

Screenwriters Chris Henchy and Shawn Harwell adopt a similar no-rules approach to the haphazard plot of their comedy, vetoing plausibility in favour of garish caricatures, bad taste humour and profanity.

Thus, the sleaziness of a married congressman is established by a scene of the politician romping with a pretty supporter in a pungent portable toilet, screaming at the top of his lungs to the workmen standing outside, "If it's a rockin', don't come a knockin'!"

Incredibly, no one takes out a camera phone to record the illicit liaison then uploads the footage to a video-sharing website.

This is a world in which Big Brother watches only when it suits the film-makers.

The Campaign boasts some decent one-liners - "My heart is beating like a phone book in a dryer" - and a delightful sequence of a candidate attempting to recite the Lord's Prayer prompted by mimes from his team.

"Lead us not to The Temptations..." he burbles. But laughs are few and far between.

The buffoon in question is self-serving congressman Cam Brady (Will Ferrell), who has represented the North California district of Hammond for four terms and is poised to be re-elected unopposed for a fifth stint.

When Cam's brazen promiscuity finally comes to the attention of voters, power broker siblings Glenn (John Lithgow) and Wade Motch (Dan Aykroyd) throw their support behind a rival candidate: eccentric local tour guide Marty Huggins (Zach Galifianakis).

Oily campaign manager Tim Wattle (Dylan McDermott) descends on Hammond to give Marty, his wife Mitzi (Sarah Baker) and their children (Grant Goodman, Kya Haywood) an extreme makeover.

"I'm here to make you not suck," growls Tim.

As Marty begins to make inroads into Cam's voting heartland, tension between the two camps intensifies and the back-stabbing escalates out of control.

Like the political rivals at the heart of the action, The Campaign fails to deliver on its promises.

Ferrell lacks his usual sparkle, while Galifianakis recycles his performance from the 2010 comedy Due Date, replete with canine sidekick.

For every handful of gags that miss their target, the film delivers a chuckle, such as when Marty asks his loved ones for full disclosure of their dark secrets so the family can start the campaign with a clean slate and his sons' initial mild transgressions (saying the Lord's name in vain) rapidly degenerate into dark and twisted perversions (performing an indecent act with a goat at a petting zoo).

Marty's catchphrase pledge to clean up politics - "I'm bringing a broom, because it's a mess!" - might also be aimed at Jay Roach's disjointed film.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

Away joy for Irons

WEST Ham United picked up their first away victory in the Premier League on Monday night, winning 2-1 at struggling QPR.

Matt Jarvis gave Irons the perfect start, heading in after three minutes while Ricardo Vaz Te doubled that lead before half-time.

Rangers rallied in the second half, with Adel Taarbt scoring a great long range goal, but had Samba Diakite sent off late on.

Irons boss Sam Allardyce said: "I think the outstanding qualities we showed, both in our ability to take the game to the opposition away from home and our ability to score goals, were fantastic to see."

DEAN Cox scored from the halfway line as Leyton Orient earned a 2-1 victory at Walsall in League One on Tuesday night.

Lee Cook (11) fired O's ahead before Cox (29) caught Saddlers keeper Karl Darlow off his line. Will Grigg (pen 58) pulled Walsall back into the match and also had a late penalty shout turned down.

O's boss Russell Slade said: "We won deservedly so on reflection of the 90 minutes."

DAGENHAM & Redbridge picked up a well-earned point at second place Port Vale in League Two, drawing 1-1.

Luke Howell's 72nd minute opener was cancelled out by Jennison Myrie-Williams, although Dwight Gayle had a great chance late on to earn Daggers three points, but blazed over.

Boss John Still said: "We played really well against a good team and are moving in the right direction."

HIGHS AND LOWS: Tony Brown and Ryan Anderson took a win on Saturday, but rolled out on Sunday while in third. Both were not seriously injured

Up and down meet for sidecar pairing

Motorsport

A SIDECAR team enjoyed the highs and lows of motorsport at the weekend.

Passenger Ryan Anderson, from Romford, who rides with driver Tony Brown, from Sittingbourne, Kent, picked up the win as a wildcard entry in the ACU/FSRA British F2 Sidecar Championship on Saturday at Brands Hatch.

The pair also wrapped up the British Motorcycle Racing Club's Formula 2 crown.

Riding on their 17-year-old Herne Bay Motorcycles 600cc Windle, the pair saw off champions-elect Ian and Carl Bell on their LCR 600 in the British F2 race to take victory by just under four seconds, in only their second ever meeting in the class.

After qualifying in second, the duo found themselves in third on the fourth lap but hauled themselves up to the front and stayed there to win after 16 laps.

In Sunday's race, they were running in second place on the last lap when they were forced onto the grass at Surtees.

The sidecar dug in and flipped, throwing out Brown and Anderson in the middle of the circuit, causing the race to be stopped.

Brown was unhurt but Anderson was knocked out in the crash.

Ryan said: "I spent a night in hospital as I was a bit groggy. Nothing was broken but there are a few aches and bruises."

"We were over the moon with the result as we were on a 17-year-old bike in only our second meeting in the category."

Dagenham rampant to continue winning start

TRY: Dagenham were in control against Burnham in the Essex One clash.

Rugby Union

DAGENHAM continued their winning ways in Essex One this season with a 72-3 win over last season's title rivals Burnham on Saturday.

In a very much one sided match that included an 11 try haul from the Dagenham side, the team from Central Park never looked like being troubled.

The scoreline reflected Dagenham's attacking force, which came from all over the pitch but just as importantly reflects their impressive defensive line.

Notable performances came from new signing at fly half, Jordan Calverley, as well as Tom Stimson and Stuart Beattie in the back line.

Player-coach West Calverley said: "I'm extremely happy with the guys' performance."

"After dogging out a close 24-20 away win at Millwall after going down to 13 men, we've proven to ourselves and the rest of the league that we are serious contenders capable of unlocking the opposition defence."

"No one at the club is getting over excited, we know it's a long season so the feet are still firmly on the ground. Bancroft away next week is what we are focused on right now and getting another win."

Rugby Union

Barking search for first point

IT WAS disappointment once again for Barking as they still search for their first league point in National Two South.

They went down by 23-51 at the Goresbrook after a poor first half saw them 9-34 down.

Tries from Sam Parsons, Thomas Notman, Richard Brown, Chris Fuca plus a penalty try saw Redruth surge ahead, with Alan Paul Thirlby kicking three conversions and a penalty. Oliver Forrest had kicked three penalties for Barking's scores.

Barking went over the line in the second period through Charles Baffour-Awuah and Michael Anderson, with Forrest adding the conversions, but Redruth gained a bonus point as Thomas Duncan scored two tries, while Fuca grabbed his second of the afternoon.

Southend's inconsistent start to the season continued with a 36-24 defeat at Clifton.

It looked good for Southend who took a 12-14 lead into half-time with tries from Jack Jones and Danny Cleare, while Jones kicked the extras. Clifton also scored two tries through William Pomphrey and Samuel Harrison, but Ben Roberts kicked one conversion.

However he scored two early penalties in the second half, and Clifton took the initiative with tries from Paul Finken and James Stephenson, with Roberts kicking a conversion and two penalties.

Southend produced a late rally with tries from Andrew McClintock and Cleare to earn their side a bonus point.

Thurrock suffered their second defeat in National League Three London and South East, losing 22-20 at Hertford. Markus Burckham and Stefan North went over the line for Thurrock but Hertford kept them at bay with scores from Robert MacPherson-Smith, Torran Macdougall and Ed Moss.

In London One North, second place Eton Manor's 100 per cent winning record continued, beating Beaconsfield 53-3.

Basildon are still looking for their first win, going down 24-37 to Chingford, while Brentwood drew 13-13 with Luton.

Romford & Gidea Park were beaten 52-19 at Colchester while Rochford Hundred went down 19-14 at Old Haberdashers.

Chelmsford were 6-24 winners at Woodford to notch up their second league win of the season in London Two North East. Woodford drop to third from bottom.

In London Three North East, leaders Upminster suffered their first defeat, losing 20-15 at Wisbech.

Clarets lose ground on leaders while Urchins continue good form

Non League Football

CHELMSFORD City lost ground on the leaders in Blue Square South on Tuesday night, losing 1-0 at lowly Sutton United.

Harry Beautyman (8) scored early on for Sutton as the Clarets dropped down to fourth place, five points behind leaders Salisbury City.

AFC Hornchurch continued their good run of form, winning 4-2 at ten-man Maidenhead United.

Martin Tuohy (22), Ben Bowditch (38) and Daniel Brown's own goal (43) saw Urchins go into half-time 3-0 up.

Harry Pritchard (53) pulled a goal back but Maidenhead went a man down as Billy Lumley was sent off.

Tuohy (pen 57) grabbed his second while Alex Wall (73) scored what would be a consolation lation for the Robins.

On Saturday, Billericay Town suffered disappointment as Tim Sills' first half hat-trick put Basingstoke in a commanding position by half-time.

Rob Swaine (55) pulled a goal back for Blues but it was not enough.

In the FA Trophy, Canvey Island and Grays Athletic both came through replays on Tuesday night.

Ryman Premier's Canvey had a late night at Ryman North's Wroxham, winning 2-1 deep into extra-time. Danny Heale (34) was cancelled out by Remy Gordon's equaliser on 75 minutes.

Wroxham's Gavin Lemmon was sent off before the 90 minutes and Ashley Miller struck on 115 minutes to put Gulls through.

Grays won 2-1 at Ashford (Middx). Jack West (16) opened the scoring and Jake Hall made it 2-0 before the break

Kofi Lockhart-Adams gave the Southern League side hope after the break but Grays held on.

In the Saturday fixture's Redbridge lost 5-0 at home to Met Police, while Concord Rangers were 3-0 winners at struggling Kettering Town, Harry Elmes, Steve King and Jason Hallett on the scoresheet.

East Thurrock United progressed, beating fellow Ryman Premier side Hastings United 4-0, while Waltham Forest lost by the same scoreline at Ryman South's Ramsgate.

Ryman North's Ilford lost 4-1 at Bognor Regis. The Premier side scored three times in the last 15 minutes while Christian Mkwanzani scored Foxes' consolation.

Heybridge Swifts lost 3-0 at Carshalton Athletic while Brentwood Town won 2-1 at Walton & Hersham who went ahead through Graeme Purdy. However, Neil Cousins and Sherwin Stanley gave Town the win.

Romford were 'at home' to landlords Thurrock and it was Fleet who came out on top with a 3-1 victory.

Boro took the lead through Ryan Imbert, but Fleet fought back through Matt Turpin, and despite Mark Onyenma's red card, Charlie Stimson gave them the lead. Romford's Lewis Francis saw red and Leroy Griffiths completed the victory.

In Ryman North midweek, Brentwood Town enjoyed their travels, winning 5-0 at Harlow Town.

Tilbury are up to second following their 2-1 win over Witham Town thanks to Joel Barnett's late penalty.

Aveley snatched a 2-1 victory at Waltham Abbey as Billy Holland netted in stoppage time.
